DAILY PACIFIC NEWS.

J. WINCHESTER.....EDITOR.

Tuesday, April 30, 1850.

THE FEE BILL.—The "Act to regulate the Fees of Office," passed by the Legislature on the 18th of April, will be published in a neat pamphlet form, and for sale at this office, at ten o'clock this morning.

Steamer Edition of the News.

The Pacific News for the steamer Panama can be had at the counter at 8 o'clock THIS MORNING. It contains a full Price Current, intelligence from Trinidad, and much other interesting matter for the information of people in the Atlantic States.

The Election To-Day.

In our Saturday's issue we urged upon our Democratic brethren the importance of union, and appealed to them to come up to the contest in one unbroken phalanx. We sought to impress upon them, that harmony and unity of action were indispensable to the maintenance of Democratic principles in this the Empire City of the Empire State of the Pacific. We trust that our appeal has met with a sympathetic response in every bosom, and that the result of this day's work will prove that in the hour of need the Democracy of San Francisco will be found true and faithful; and that they are not only forgetful of every personal or ambitious view, but solicitous above all other things that the principles of political action and Democratic policy which they have ever cherished as the brightest of jewels, shall be triumphant in our young State.

With these principles and policy we believe the happiness and prosperity of the people are inseparably bound up; and we hesitate not to aver that in no election which is likely to occur for many years, can it be more important than at this time, that the Democratic standard should be successfully upheld.

Upon the Common Council we are about to elect will devolve weighty responsibilities. San Francisco is but just emerging from a state of almost chaos: the former system is to be abolished, and a new and American one established in its place. It is doubly important, then, that we should call men to the charge of the municipal administration in whose ability and integrity the people can rely for a wise, efficient and economical management of the affairs of our growing metropolis.

Our position in regard to the public acts of the Ayuntamiento is well known in this community. Whatever in their acts was in our judgment wrong, we have not hesitated boldly to condemn; and we feel that our course has tended mainly to arrest the action which was leading the city into unnecessary embarrassment. That is not a party question; nor is the Democracy of San Francisco any more responsible for the misdeeds of the Town Council than are the Whigs. The effort, therefore, of the Whigs to foist upon the Democratic party any issue of this kind, is simply a political trick, the transparency of which should take from it all power to do mischief.

Whilst many worthy Democrats still persist in lending their names and influence to distract our ranks, it becomes more than ever the duty of the honest, hard-working "rank and file," to close up the column, and regardless of all the seductions of personal favor, press steadily on to the charge—to victory. It is in their power to win for themselves and for the principles they revere, a chaplet of imperishable renown. Let them devote one day to the cause of patriotism and the best interests of San Francisco, by sternly opposing all efforts to divide and defeat us at the polls.

It is needless for us to speak at length of the Democratic candidates, or of their qualifications for the fulfilment of the duties of the several offices to which they have been nominated. The people know them as citizens worthy of their confidence. The base and uncalled for attacks upon the private character of Judge Geary will recoil with tremendous force upon the heads of those who have hurled their envenomed shafts, but which have fallen harmless at his feet. The Democratic party will never stand tamely by and see one of its cherished members crushed by the breath of calumny. His election to the chief magistracy of this city is certain; but to make "assurance doubly sure," his friends, who are a host, must work to-day as men do who are determined to conquer.

For members of the Council we have some of the best men in this community. Mr. James Smiley, of the firm of Neall and Smiley, will carry with him into the Common Council those habits of strict attention to business and upright dealing which have won for him the esteem and regard of all who know him. Henry A. Breed, a lumber merchant, universally esteemed, and the especial favorite of the eastern or Nantucket men, without distinction of party. William F. White, of the firm of White Brothers, importers, in California street, one of our most successful and popular young merchants, respected and admired by all who know him, for his sterling integrity and his many estimable qualities of head and heart. E. V. Joyce, a respectable lawyer whose services last year in aiding to establish order in our city, must be remembered by all. Charles V. Stuart, and prominent resident of the Mission Dolores, extensively engaged in market gardening and improving property in that vicinity, and who will receive its entire vote; Thomas H. Ferris, a ship carpenter, an active, energetic young man; A. A. Selover, one of our most reputable auction and commission merchants; and Morgan L Mott, extensively engaged in the cattle trade.

With these gentlemen and our candidates for the Board of Assistants, whom our limits will not permit us to refer to as particularly as we had designed, we propose such a Common Council as it should be the interest not of Democrats only, but of all business men, all of who desire the prosperity of our city and State to exert all their influence to elect.

Democrats!—will you not elect the whole ticket by an overwhelming majority? You can do it, if you will. Be vigilant, watchful, true to Democratic principles, and all will be well.

CALIFORNIA MEETING.—The adjourned meeting to take into consideration the peculiar situation of California, in reference to her admission into the Union, met last night at the Haley House, to hear the report of the committee. Col. John B. Weller, on behalf of the committee submitted a preamble and resolutions, which, after remarks by several gentlemen, were unanimously adopted. The resolutions were calm and temperate, stating our case fairly and firmly; and we doubt not, will produce a favorable effect upon the action of Congress, towards whose action in this case, all are looking with the deepest anxiety.

NAVAL.—We learn from the New York Courier that Captain E. Jones, of the iron revenue cutter Polk, has been transferred to the cutter Morris, now on duty on the New York station. The Polk has been lying in ordinary for sometime, but is to be fitted immediately for California, under the command of Capt. H. D. Hunter. Ten naval officers and thirty government passengers will proceed in the Polk, on business connected with the navy, customs, public lands, and other matters in this region.

SECOND ELECTION DISTRICT.—We are authorised to state, that in consequence of the exorbitant price asked for the large room known as "Crockford's," the County Clerk has changed the poll of the Second District to the "United States," one door from the Empire, Portsmouth square.

COL GEARY.—Our readers are referred to the communication of "Justice," in another column. The attack upon Colonel Geary is arousing a spirit that will make his calumniators hide their diminished heads.

ENGLISH MAIL.—We learn that a large portion of the English mail for this city, brought up by the Panama, was received from that steamer last evening, at the Post Office. This is the second time that mail has been accidentally detained on board that steamer. We hope it will be the last.

SIGNOR ROSSI.—We refer to this gentleman's advertisement in another column. At Herz's concert on Saturday evening last, he gave much satisfaction by his practice of legerdemain. We see, also, that Prof. Herz and Madame Lacombe are to add to the attractions of the evening.

LETTER SHEET PRICES CURRENT.—Messrs. Losee & Gallaer have issued their Letter Sheet Prices Current, copies of which can be obtained at the desk of this office. It is full, and carefully made up, and the edition limited. Those who desire them should call or send early.

State Assayer.

One of the most important bills passed during the session of our Legislature is the act creating the office of State Assayer, Melter and Refiner of gold, and defining his duties. The first section provides that the office shall be kept in San Francisco. The second section provides that, "The Governor of the State shall appoint two competent persons to take in charge and perform the duties of said establishment—one as Director, the other as Assayer, Melter and Refiner of gold. Before entering upon their duties, each of them shall execute a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties of fifty thousand dollars each, to be approved by the Governor, conditioned for the skillful and faithful performance of all the duties required of them by law, which bond shall be made payable to the people of the State of California, and deposited with the Secretary of State They and all persons in their employ shall take an oath before some Judge duly qualified to administer oaths, truthfully and faithfully to perform their trust." The third and fourth sections provides, "That the two officers shall hold office one year, and until successors are appointed, and that they shall keep open from 9 A. M. to 2 P M., daily, Sundays excepted;" and "That the Director shall receive gold dust of bullion in quantities of two ounces or upwards, for which he shall be responsible, for safe keeping or melting. The weight after melting shall be deemed the true weight of all dust and bullion deposited."

After several provisions as to the detail of office records, &c., the 10 and 16th sections further provides, "That the State Assayer and Director shall charge each one per cent. on all bars and ingots issued, to compensate themselves, and shall also collect three-fourths of one per cent. on all bars and ingots to pay into the State Treasuay;" and that "The books and accounts shall be examined once in every three months by the Attorney General, and shall be open to the inspection of the County Judges, the Chamber of Commerce, or Board of Trade of either city in the State, at all times." Section 15th, authorizes "The Governor to establish branches at Sacramento city, Stockton, and Sonora, if petitioned so to do. The Director and Assayer shall give an additional bond of fifty thousand dollars for each branch formed under this act." Sections 17 and 18 provide for the punishment of any persons who shall "alter, mutilate, clip, reduce in weight, file, sweat, alloy, or reduce in value any bar or ingot issued," or who "shall make or cause to be made, forge, counterfeit, or who shall attempt to utter, bars or ingots resembling or similar to those issued." Section 19 provides, "That upon the establishment of an U. S. Branch Mint in this State, the Governor shall abolish the offices of Director and State Assayer."

The other sections of this bill complete the details necessary for carrying into purpose its full provisions. It entirely meets our hearty assent, as a measure of vast importance to our citizens. At the present rates of dust, it has almost ceased to be of itself a measure of value, but is swept from the market as a commodity of speculation, and transported by every steamer to where its rates are higher. This will in some measure be prevented by the above law. After this, we think no more will be sent out of the country than what will be necessary to represent the balance of trade; and as our agricultural resources are developed this will become less and less, until such a thing as a drain will be unknown to our finances.

NEW STEAMBOAT.—During a walk in Happy Valley, a few days ago, we were pleased to notice a new steamer nearly ready to launch. She is about seventy-five feet keel, thirteen feet beam, and four and a half feet hold. The builders are Messrs. Macarman & Co., and is owned by Stewart & Gibbs. This craft is not destined as yet for any particular trade, but from the beauty of her model and handsome accommodations, we feel assured she will succeed in any of our upper-river waters. We understand she is to be launched to-morrow.

NEW CHEESE.—We were treated, a few evenings since, to a fine sample of new made cheese, from the dairy of Mr. Wilkes, a few miles from San Jose.—Mr. W. keeps sixty milch cows, and will be able to supply this market with many of the "old-fashioned" luxuries. We feel very much tempted to take another stroll into that lovely valley one of these days; and would not object to a ranch of a few hundred acres upon which to rusticate when wearied with the cares and bustle of town.

☞ By some late arrival or other, our city has been inflicted with an invoice of monkeys and hand-organs. On Saturday last, on the Square, we saw two rivals out-doing each other in grinding out music; one had an automaton band going through the motions attached to his instrument, while the other had a veritable pug doing the honors after the old fashion.

Arrival of the Gold Hunter.---Eight Days Later from Panama.

About six o'clock last evening this splendid steamer came into our bay from Panama, in the short trip of 22 days, bringing one hundred and fifty passengers. She brings no later dates from the United States. From the Parama Echo of the 6th inst., we extract the following:

The Sarah Sands, Capt W. C. Thompson, sails on Monday next, with nearly 400 passengers.

The Carolina, Capt. Marks, will leave Panama on or about the 15th inst. Her passengers must have arrived at Chagres by this time, per the steamship Philadelphia, and will reach this city in the course of next week.

The Isthmus is here, waiting orders; and the Oregon will loom up about the 1st of May.

The Philadelphia, Ohio or Falcon will arrive at Chagres within a few days.

Among the distinguished visitors now in Panama, we notice the arrival, a few days since, at the Western Hotel, of lady Emeline Stuart Wortley, and daughter. Lady Wortley is the daughter of the Duke of Rutland.

Nothing of special importance has transpired in Panama during the week, if we except the operations on 'Change in tickets of steamships and sailing vessels. A large operation has been realized in this line and no little ingenuity displayed, and "cutting under" manifested by stockjobbers in tickets and transfers. The bulls and bears have had a pretty tight time of it; the bulls, however, seem united, while the bears appear to be fighting on their own hook, divided in opinion among themselves, and occasionally growl as if they were "bit" in a sore place. The bulls keep pushing up and the bears trying to pull down, and in this way the commercial mart is daily enlivened by the keen-sighted wisdom of ticket venders, and the not unfrequent peculiar greenness of purchasers. The advance on steamship tickets is from $50 to $150 from first cost, (with the exception of the Gold Hunter, whose tickets, cabin only, are sold for $300.) The active business is confined to the tickets on the New World, Columbus, New Orleans and Northerner, yet to arrive. The market closes firm for the holders, while those on the "anxious seat" are expecting a decline, considering the brisk competition which is making itself felt on the Pacific side. Sailing vessels are carrying for $120, steerage, to San Francisco, and $200 cabin, or $180, double berths. Steamer tickets command the regular price, with the advance above noticed, and the tendency is upwards, though the crowd in Panama, brought by the Georgia and other ships on the Atlantic side, have been pretty well thinned out by the sailing vessels.

The load of passengers brought by the steamship Georgia on her last trip to Chagres—some 1300 persons—was the largest ever carried by a similar vessel, if we except, perhaps, some of the British transport ships.

The steamship New World is expected here by the 17th or 20th inst. She is said to be a swift sailer, and is destined for the Sacramento river. She eluded the officers grasp at New York, but rumor says—we know not how truly—that the Sheriff's posse are on the watch, and intend pouncing on the ship in the Port of Panama; it may be so. We shall see.

It is estimated there are 1500 North Americans in and about Panama.

Oliver Charlick, Esq., ex-alderman of New York, is located at Panama, as agent of George Law & Co.'s steamers.

Gen. Mosquera, of Panama, has engaged 250 slaves and 300 free men for the Isthmus railroad.

[We were not aware that there were any slaves in Central America, until we saw this news.]

George Allen, of Lawrence county, N. Y. died on board the steamer Georgia, during her last trip, off the coast of Florida.

We are pleased to see that Mr. Booth, of New Jersey, now stopping at the Western Hotel, is taking with him to California, some 30,000 fruit trees.

Charles Barnes, Esq., from New Orleans, now in Panama, designs establishing a saw mill near that place.

We regret to announce the death of James Parker, in consequence of the gun-shot wound inflicted by G. W. Torrence a short time ago. He died about 11 o'clock on the morning of the 30th ult., after lingering 17 days, most of the time in great pain.

PUEBLO DE SAN JOSE, April 23, 1850.
To the Editor of the Pacific News:

SIR:—Before separating from my fellow-members of the Assembly and my friends of the Senate, I cannot forbear expressing my high sense of the ability, integrity and zeal which distinguish the members of the first Legislature of the State of California. It is due to truth to say that their labors have been directed, so far as I am able to judge, by a sincere zeal for the interests of the State and the welfare of their fellow-citizens. The result of those labors has been the building up of a political and judicial system admirably adapted to the circumstances of the country. They had a most difficult task to accomplish, and it is impossible to expect that everything could be done at one session; but so far as it was possible, I take pleasure in saying that full justice has been done to the wants of the people. To all my honorable associates and friends, I bid a kind and cordial A'Dios wishing them all prosperity and success in the various occupations and pursuits, and that happiness in the bosom of their families which men who have discharged their public duties faithfully, so well deserve.

Very respectfully, &c.,
J. M. COVARRUBIAS.

We return our acknowledgments to the gentlemanly officers of the Gold Hunter, for the latest Panama papers.

The Rush for California.

The stream of people that poured into our borders last year, with such constant and increasing force, will hardly be lessened during the present ANNO DOMINI; and we confidently predict that within the next twelve calendar months the population of the State will be doubled. Such a statement seems too incredible for belief, but facts within our knowledge, obtained from various reliable sources, leave hardly a doubt that such is to be the case.

The tickets of steamers plying between New York and Chagres are exhausted up to July—were so six weeks since. Not only are large numbers of new vessels in the course of construction in the Atlantic cities, designed especially for this port, but old ones are being newly fitted up in the most comfortable and luxuriant style for the accommodation of passengers, and—with pleasure we announce it—these passengers are composed to a large extent of families. The determination of gentlemen here no longer to live separate from their wives and children, and the conclusion of many about to come, not to leave them behind, has induced ship owners to fit out vessels for this particular purpose. The passengers in each are to be limited to such number as will leave no doubt of heir en tire comfort and ease throughout the whole voyage. A gentleman who returned hither in the last steamer, gives it as his opinion that at the time he left New York not less than fifty thousand persons were preparing to embark for our shores within a very short period. Besides people, capital is also coming. Men of means have just found out, or rather begun to find out, that California is not a humbug. Heretofore they have been afraid to meddle in California enterprises. Now that their eyes are opened, they are determined to come in for a share of the profits that others are realizing.

One circumstance shows the hold California and its advantages has upon people who know its resources. Many who went home last fall and winter with the intention of remaining, are about to return. They are not content with the small scale of profits there; old modes of business are repugnant, and nothing will answer but a return with their families. A welcome to each and all! California has room for millions.

[Communicated.]
His Excellency, Gov. Burnett:

SIR: The observations which I have had the honor to address to you through the columns of the Pacific News were written some days anterior to their publication in that journal, and previously to the receipt of the intelligence here that the order prohibiting the sale of city lots had been rescinded by your Excellency. The reasons which induced this course on the part of the Executive, have not, I believe, been submitted to the public, and we are left therefore, wholly to conjecture for a probable solution of them. I am not disposed to infer any improper motive in the withdrawal of the prohibition of sale by your Excellency, nor is any such inference, so far as I have observed, sought to be drawn by the people of San Francisco. There is, however, a strong desire entertained, and perhaps a laudable one, to ascertain the representations which were made to the Executive, and that were of so positive and forcible a character as to lead to the reversal of an order, involving so many and such important interests, and which, it was supposed, had been issued in the first instance, only after full and mature deliberation. This desire, therefore, on the part of the people of this city, to be made acquainted with the particular considerations which swayed the mind of your Excellency, to review and cancel, almost immediately, your own solemn act is only a natural and justifiable one, and cannot properly be traced to lawless curiosity, or to a disposition to pry into affairs and occurrences of no moment to the public, and which in nowise concern the people of San Francisco.—Whether they will be gratified in this desire it is not for me to say or to conjecture. The reasons on which a public functionary acts in the discharge of a public duty, are, perhaps, as fairly the property of the people as a notification to them of the act itself, and as fairly, also, the subject of candid examination and of honorable and legitimate criticism.

There is, and it is useless to conceal the fact, of which, also, I doubt not your Excellency has been apprised, a thorough and full belief on the part of the great mass of the inhabitants of this city, that their municipal affairs have not been wisely managed; that a system of wasteful and prodigal expenditure has been adopted and pursued; and that the Ayuntamiento in that it has done and all that it has sought to do, has looked only to the present, caring nothing for the future. There are graver accusations, sir, than those even preferred publicly against this body, but of these truth, I know nothing. I have heard, indeed, most marvellous tales of official pliancy and accommodation, but I shall not stand sponser for them, and, therefore, shall not repeat them here. There seems, however, to have been a mode of transacting business in San Francisco, both public and private, unique and original in its character. The impression appears to have been general, and to have been carried out to some extent in practice, that this city, and this State, had been acquired from Mexico, not for the purposes of gradual, legitimate and permanent settlement, but for the less expensive and less honorable objects of plunder, and of individual acquisition, and that to those, on the spot, belonged all the wealth, and all the resources of this vast and magnificent domain. Entertaining this belief, and acting upon it in most of the ways practicable, under existing circumstances, it is not strange that affairs have been conducted here on principles somewhat original, and somewhat questionable; nor that the maxim, as old as the language in which it is written, should not be entirely unknown on the shores of the Pacific: "Rem facias: rem, si possis, recte, si non, quocunque modo, rem."

To the Public.

Under an article headed "A few words to the People," in the Daily Journal of Commerce of the 29th instant, appears a vile and underhanded charge upon John W. Geary, the candidate before the people for Mayor. Now I apprehend that Col. Geary will necessarily sink under this assassinating thrust in the same manner that the Dutchman swore would he die when kicked; not he replied "he would die because he was kicked by a horse, but being kicked by a damned ass, he would surely die." Col. Geary cannot surely survive this underhanded kick of a male ass. It is due to this community that such sweeping charges should be made specific in their character. Any enemy can say of a fellow citizen that he is a villain and scoundrel, and his assertions be without the slightest foundation of truth. The tongue of slander may detract from the merits of a man, but the voice of truth can never prejudice the character of a public servant who submits every act to public scrutiny. Now Col. Geary submits his whole history to the people of this country and city, and demands that those who charge dishonesty, should prove the act. No enlightened community are willing that a public officer should be branded with crime without an impartial hearing, and a clear proof of the accusation. The article alluded to is the more so, as it is an attempt to forestall the minds of the community on the eve of an important election. Col. Geary relies upon his capacity, honesty and integrity to secure his election to the office for which he has been nominated. "It is generally believed," &c. says the article: now, who believes said assertion but those who would not believe the truth were it as clear as the noon day sun.—"We are credibly informed," it continues: now, who, pray, constitute such informants but the writer's own perverted imagination. "We think:"—most true; you think, you who are using an editor as a servile tool, perverting the legitimate objects of the press to unprincipled calumny and detraction of the character of a citizen against whom you produce not a single proof. From our acquaintance with, and knowledge of, Col. Geary's judicial history, we deny in toto the assertion of this article and challenge proof. Perfectly willing to have his acts judged of and tested in all legitimate methods, Col. Geary throws himself upon the support of the people, and if capacity, honesty and integrity cannot sustain him, he expects defeat. But with confidence in the integrity of the people he abides the result.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

SAN FRANCISO MARKETS.
Monday Evening, April 29.

Demand for flour continues steady; the market firm, and tendency upward. Sales of half barrels have been to-day closed at $6. Some large holders are withdrawn from market. Ruling rates. In quantity, for half sacks, are $5 50 a 5 62½, and encouraged on the advance. Whole sacks are ranging from $10 25 upwards.

The supply of Coffee being light, prices have been run up. Sales have been made to-day as high as 35½c. and 37½c.

The demand for Sugar has been quite brisk, and sales made of 12,000 lbs. Manilla brown, and of 16,000 lbs. at 32c. and 35c. The arrival of part of a cargo from Sandwich Islands, this afternoon, may perhaps check further speedy advance.

Two cargoes of Potatoes, just arrived, have been closed at 20c. and 24c.; a very material advance upon former prices. A still further advance may be anticipated, the stock being light, and evidently held for speculation.

The arrival of the Gold Hunter, bringing Panama dates to the 7th, but no later dates from the States, has no effect on the market.

About $100,000 of the specie receipts per Panama, seems seeking investment here. Loans have been made at 6 per cent, but no marked reduction in ruling rates of interest has taken places. The Panama will take home about $1,000,000 in her manifest, and full half that sum not entered; the entire shipment of the month will not vary far from 3,000,000.

☞ SAN FRANCISCO, April 20, 1850.

Messrs. Editors: Gentlemen—We are sorry to observe in your journal of this morning, a statement relative to the finances of the city, which reflects unfavorably upon us as public officers. We the more regret this communication for the reason that our duties confine us to a narrow sphere, and do not permit our partaking, or meddling with the proceedings of the Ayuntamiento, or common council.

The discrepancy assumed to have existed between our several accounts, as published in the Alcalde's pamphlet, is accounted for by the absence of the first Treasurer's fiscal statement at the time he left office, and was probably deemed unnecessary, as no account is kept with the Treasurer individually, but with the Treasury.

Presuming that the Alcalde will also reply to the statement first alluded to above, we will, for the satisfaction of your correspondent, as well as the public generally, only further beg reference to the accompanying recapitulation of the Comptroller's first account, while we are, very respectfully, your obedient servants,

S. C. Simmons, Comptroller,

A CARD

☞ Having been brought before the public, under circumstances which, probably, all may not understand, I respectfully submit the following. My friends offered my name as a candidate for Alderman to the nominating committee. That committee regularly gave me the nomination, and was by them so reported publicly. At the third and final meeting of said committee, a person gets in that body, (and I contend he had no right there, according to the usages of party,) and for reasons best known to himself, exerts his private and personal views to reconsider the nomination. If that is honest or just, I have nothing to say, but I think not. Now, what were those reasons? It may be that I am too young to be tossed aside; but that is for the people to determine. This person, in addressing a meeting on Portsmouth square, was asked by the assemblage, his reasons. Now mark his reply. That I, in performing my duty as a public auctioneer, had sold to the "poor people" Colton lots at twenty dollars apiece. Most sapient sage—philosopher; was it his love for the "poor people," or his regard for his "pockets?" The public well understand that if the Colton titles are sustained, the individual will lose some of the Grab Titles which he pretends to claim. Here is his love for the "poor people"—as shallow as all his past political life. I should not have appeared thus before the public, but ever deeming that truth and justice should be maintained, I have thus consented; and, in conclusion, do hereby respectfully offer myself as a candidate for that honorable situation, to which, if elected, pledge myself to go, unbiassed, for the best interests of this great and glorious city. [cxxxi o] Theodore Payne.

☞ Through the partiality of my friends, my name has been placed before the public for re-election as a member of the city council, at the ensuing charter election. Feeling grateful for the confidence reposed in me, circumstances prevent me from becoming a candidate.

INDEPENDENT NOMINATIONS.

Whereas, it being all important to the interests of the city of San Francisco, at its first municipal organization, under the charter recently adopted by the Legislature, that peace, harmony and good order should prevail among all its inhabitants, and that all interests should be guarded alike, without reference to geographical locality, or political complexion: And, whereas, the present aspect at home, in our American Congress, with reference to our admission as a State, with our present constitution, is, at least, doubtful, because political parties, as they are now organised, look more to the interest of party aggrandisement and party questions than the good and welfare of the citizens of California: And, whereas, self-preservation being the first law of nature, in delegating power, for our own protection, which is as yet denied us from those who are bound to protect us. Therefore,

Resolved, That we will support men for the several offices, under our city charter, who are honest, capable and true, whether they be Whig or Democrat; and we call upon all men, without distinction of party, who have an interest, whether moral, social or financial, to unite with us in the following ticket, believing they are all men well qualified and strictly honest, who will, if elected, look well to the interest of the city, and of its inhabitants.

☞ Among the various officers to be elected, under the new charter, is that of Street Commissioner, and which, owing to the condition of our streets during the last twelve months, is rendered one of the most important and responsible of them all. We find the name of Charles J. Richards as a candidate for that office, and from his known activity and strict integrity, we know of no man better fitted for the arduous duties of that situation, nor one who, if elected, would give more general satisfaction to the citizens of san Francisco. Having been for a long period engaged, under the superintendence of J. B. Jervis, chief engineer of the Croton Water Works, his knowledge of such affairs as necessarily belong to the office of Street Commissioner is practical, and most intimate; and peculiarly adapt him for the station to which he offers himself as a candidate, and to which we hope he may be elected.

FOR Sonorian Camp, Wood's Diggings, Sullivan's, Hawkins's and Don Pedro's Bars, head waters of Tuolumne, Mercedes, and Mariposa Rivers; also, to head waters of san Joaquin and King's River. FREIGHT OR PASSAGE TO CRESCENT CITY, TUOLUMNE. DURFEE & TOWNSEND have established a daily line of sailing vessels from san Francisco to the above city, situated on the south-easterly bank of the Tuolumne river, thirty-five miles above its mouth, and are prepared to carry freight or passengers.

This route is the only one which can be really said to extend, by water, to the very gold field. The city stands at the head of navigation on the Tuolumne river, where the low hills of the Sierra Nevada meet the plains of the san Joaquin, and is not only accessable by sufficient water at all seasons of the year, but the roads to the mines, from that point, are good in wet or dry weather. Goods shipped to Crescent City, Tuolumne, save from 25 to 60 miles of land carriage over any other depot for that gold region, avoiding soft roads, expensive ferriage, and personal discomfort and expense.

Persons shipping goods, or taking passage, may rely upon promptness in dispatch, speed in transit, and great saving in time and expense.

For freight or passage, apply to messrs. Turner, Fish & co., foot of Jackson street, san Francisco, or to the subscribers, Crescent City, Tuolumne. April 29, 1850.
